

The Vital Role of the UN in Resolving International Conflicts

The Honorable Jan Kavan

President of the General Assembly of the United Nations and Ambassador of the Czech Republic to the UN

Tuesday, April 29, 2003, 5:15 pm

5:15 pm, Wine and Cheese Reception; 6:00 pm, Program
The Commonwealth Club of San Francisco
595 Market Street, Second Floor, San Francisco

At this critical time in the development of the functions of the United Nations, we are pleased to present the President of the General Assembly. Jan Kavan, former Deputy Prime Minister of the Czech Republic, brings to the UN presidency experience in reshaping the Czech Republic after the Cold War, and two decades of political work in exile before the time of the Republic, fighting for democracy and human rights.

The UN is at the center of the debate about its changing role in Iraq. Come and hear what the leader of the General Assembly has to say about this vital topic.

UNA members may attend for the special price of $9. Please pre-register by calling 415-597-6705 or online at www.commonwealthclub.org. The program is co-sponsored by the Consulate of the Czech Republic, the Commonwealth Club of California, and the United Nations Association of San Francisco.
