

UNESCO, The United States & Afghanistan: Relations in Transition

This event focuses on the community's support of US re-entry into UNESCO (United Nations Educational, Scientific & Cultural Organization) and highlights the work of UNESCO on behalf of education, literacy and capacity-building in post-conflict Afghanistan.

Admission is free of charge; donations will be accepted. Proceeds benefit the Afghan Widow's Project and UNESCO's educational programs in Afghanistan.

Speakers:

- Dr. Senzil Nawid, Afghan Historian
- a member of the local Afghan community working on literacy projects in Kabul
- a UNESCO expert

Speakers will answer questions from the audience.

Well known Afghan singer and musician Akbar Ramish will perform.

Traditional Afghan delicacies will be available.

Sunday, March 30, 2003

2 - 5 pm

Booth Auditorium,
Boalt Hall School of Law,
UC Berkeley

Located at the corner of Bancroft and Piedmont Avenues

Co-sponsors: Afghan American Entertainment Association | Afghan Women's Association International | Afghan Coalition | American Friends Service Committee Pacific Mtn | American Women for Afghan Women | Amnesty International-USA, Western Region | Balkans Youth Link | California Peace Action | California Women's Agenda | Center for Justice & Accountability | Crabgrass | East Bay Peace Action | Ecumenical Peace Institute | Global Exchange | Gray Panthers | Human Rights Advocates | Human Rights Watch | Iris Arts & Education Group | Middle East Children's Alliance | No. Cal Interreligious Conference | Organization for the Advancement of Women | San Francisco Peoples Assembly | Society of Afghan Professionals | UNA-USA Monterey Bay | UNA-USA Marin | UNA-USA No. Cal Division | UNA-USA Sacramento | UNA-USA Sonoma | UNA-USA Mid-Peninsula | Unity Foundation | Western States Legal Foundation | U.S. Association for UNESCO | Women for Peace | Women & Work | Women's Intercultural Network | Women's International League for Peace & Freedom - East Bay | WILPF San Jose | World Federalist Association of No. California

First notice - stay tuned

Contact: 510-849-1752; unaeastbay@sbcglobal.net