

The United Nations Association of San Francisco presents one of a series of programs celebrating the sixtieth anniversary of the founding of the United Nations in San Francisco in 1945

REFORMING THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL

A Panel Discussion

Dr. Norman Bowen, Cal State University, Hayward
Dr. Steven Zunes, University of San Francisco
Dr. Pavel Lutomski, Stanford University and others to be announced.

Friday, February 25, 2005, 7 pm

HSS Building, Room 362, San Francisco State University 1600 Holloway Avenue, near 19th Avenue, San Francisco

Parking is available at the Campus Garage, State Drive and Lake Merced Boulevard.
This program is presented by the United Nations Association of San Francisco in cooperation with the new Masters of International Relations (MIR) Program and the International Relations Department of San Francisco State University, and the Marin County and East Bay chapters of the United Nations Association.
For more information: una-sf@earthlink.net or www.una-sf.org.